SECRETARY OF STATE, HOME DEPARTMENT.

EDWARD R. AND I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas, King, Defender of the Faith, To all to whom these Presents shall come.

GREETING :

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the forty-third year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled "The University Education (Ireland) Act, 1879," it was declared that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, in case Her Majesty should be pleased so to do, by Charter to found a University in Ireland :

AND WHEREAS by Charter bearing date the 27th day of April in the forty-third year of Her late Majesty's reign, Her Majesty founded a University by the name of "The Royal University of Ireland" :

AND WHEREAS the Senate of the said University having, in pursuance of the power conferred upon them by the said Charter, submitted to Her late Majesty Statutes for the government of the said University touching matters not expressly provided for by the said Charter, Her Majesty, by Letter under the Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one, in the forty-fifth year of Her Majesty's reign, did approve of the said Statutes :

AND WHEREAS the Senate of the said University have, in pursuance of the power conferred upon them by the said Charter, submitted to Us, in writing, under the Common Seal of the said University, certain alterations (hereinafter appearing) in the said Statutes, touching matters not expressly provided for by the said Charter :

NOW KNOW YE, that in pursuance of the provisions of the said Charter, We do by these Presents, under our Sign Manual, for Us, our Heirs and Successors, approve of the following alterations in the said Statutes of the said Royal University of Ireland, namely :—

CHAPTER II.

Under the heading "Exhibitions," after the first two lines insert :—

In connection with the Scholarship Examination eight First Class of £20 each, and twelve Second Class of £10 each, to be awarded to those candidates who, not having obtained Scholarships at such examination, shall be deemed by the Senate to have qualified for such Exhibitions.

In Sub-section "In Arts," omit all reference to Exhibitions at the Matriculation Examination.

In Sub-section "In Medicine" omit "At the M.B. Degree Examination. Two First Class of £40 each, and two Second Class of £25 each," and in the following paragraph omit all words after the word "Medicine" in line 12.

At end of Sub-section insert :—

At the M.B., B.C.H., B.A.O. Degrees Examination, at each of the two examinations in the year, the Senate may award three Exhibitions of £21 each in the groups of Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery, as the Senate may from time to time determine: provided that no candidate shall be eligible for any Exhibition at any examination subsequent to the examination next held after an interval of five academical years from the time of passing the First Examination in Medicine.

In the Section headed "Scholarships," for the first paragraph substitute :—

The Senate may offer each year for competition twelve Scholarships, each tenable for three consecutive years, in such subjects and under such conditions as they shall from time to time prescribe.

The Senate may divide these Scholarships into such classes as they may consider expedient, provided that the entire amount to be awarded to the Scholars elected in any year shall not exceed £360 per annum.

Omit the second paragraph.

Given at our Court at Windsor the Sixth day of June, 1906, in the sixth year of our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,
H. J. GLADSTONE.
